the DIPLOMACY (the game created by Allan Calhauer but now owned and marketed by the Avalon-Hill Corp) supplement to the Western Star-Post-Free Press, Vol. 12, No. 6, April 29, 1984

DIPPY is published by the Great Western Publishing Co & Whalebone Corset Works Unc, a.k.a. Jim Benes, 117 S. Stough St, Hinsdale, Ill 60521. Game fee is $5 plus a continuing subscription to this rag at the rate of 3 issues per dollar...

SINCE ALL OF YOU are interested in Diplomacy, let me recommend to you a book that I have been reading the past week or so: 1939 The Making of the Second World War by Sidney Aster. It's a little slow-oging at first, but if you are interested in diplomacy you'll soon become interested in all the talks, proposals, and concerns about form that went on in Europe during the summer before World War II began. Perhaps some of you already have read it? and have a comment or too?

ENG VISITA SUCCESS

STED, GIL MAKE EUROPE PLANS

By Ralph Guano, STAR Travel Ed

CHICAGO, April 24—Janet Sted revealed here today that because of her success as a free-lance writer in the encyclopedia set, she will be able to visit Europe this fall. She and bodyguard Jim Gillespie are planning on a visit to Paris, London, and Scotland this September.

That last stop on the agenda certainly must be the suggestion of Gillespie who longs to visit his ancestral home. And the accommodations for the visit are said to be somewhat Spartan, off the beaten track in the Scottish Highlands.

On another matter, Ms Sted also told news- men that if certain conditions were met, she'd even opt for a team in the Universal Baseball Association. "Just throw Gorski, Peters and Frost out and I'll join," she said, "and then, who can we trade to get Mary Novak in?"

UBA Commissioner Gillespie has taken the matter under advisement.

—George Hines was ~~minima~~ viciously attacked by a large Afghan hound while making his rounds for the Post Office. HINSDALE—President, Reagan, eat your heart out! The festivities surrounding Tom Eng's visit this past week to Chicago and environs are bound to make Mr. Reagan's stroll to the People's Republic seem pale in comparison. Eng's visit was almost a non-stop round of celebration, sight-seeing, talking, and feasting.

The diminutive one arrived from Boston last Friday, bearing gifts of candy and Anchor Steam beer. Eng had lugged these items from San Fran to Boston where he ran in the marathon, then to New York where he visited with family, back to Boston, and then on his flight to Chicago.

Eng's first words to the greeting delegation were, "Well, what's on the agenda?" That Friday night was taken up with carry-out Czech dinner from the Country House, meetings with the Gorskis two, and discussions of world problems that lasted until midnight.

Eng disclosed that he had done well in the Boston marathon, finishing the race, but that he had "hit the wall" running out of gas with only a few miles to go. This slowed his pace considerably, and when he did finish he was rushed to a medical tent for treatment of hypothermia.

eight miles before breakfast. This accomplished, Eng, hosts Andi Wiley and Jim Benes, and Phil Rogers and Karen Hand departed for Milwaukee. There, the group toured the Pabst mansion. If you're interested in 19th century architecture, decorating, or just high-class lifestyles, you'd be interested in this tour. Following it, the group descended upon Mader's German restaurant for an extravagant meal. South Cicero Promotions should organize a trip here. Mader's boasts, among a huge selection of other items of food and drink, no less than 73 different kinds of imported beer, and half a dozen different kinds of schnitzel. Yum!

On April 22nd, Easter Sunday, Eng was the guest of the Benes clan for dinner. That evening, the activity was the show at Second City: Orwell That Ends Well. This too is recommended.

Monday the fifth 23rd found Eng and companions touring the Chicago Art Institute, Eng marvelling at the wide variety of magazines available at Kroch's Wabash Avenue store, and dinner hosted by Fred Partido at the Golden Ox. Another wonderful eatery.

Tuesday the 24th began with Eng and Benes taking to the racquetball court at the Downtown Court Club. Luckily, Eng did NOT display the acumen for running into walls that he showed three years ago, the last time he played. And he improved in each game that he played. Next was lunch at Eng's favorite downtown eatery, The Berghoff in the company of Jim Gillespie and the lovely Janet Sted. Following that it was off to the Field Museum for an afternoon of viewing the wonders of natural and cultural history before dinner with Gillespie and the Wiley-Benes' at Dianna Opaa's in Greentown.

Eng ended his visit on Wednesday, the 25th, with a light luncheon (a quarter of a roasted duck) at the Corner Restaurant in Brookfield. He then purchased several pounds of garlic sausage and bratwurst to take home to San Francisco, and was airborne in time to be home for dinner.

It was a happy, exhausting time, a real jam-packed vacation in Chicago that left Benes gasping afterwards "Well, it could have been worse. I only gained four pounds."

WORSE THAN WATERGATE !!!

SULLIVAN, "NIXON STOLE MY BODY!"

In an exclusive STAR interview, former TV host Ed "Really Big Shew" Sullivan says former president Richard "I am not a crook" Nixon stole his body!

"Yes," Sullivan told the STAR in a graveside chat, "My body was still in great shape. So Richard Nixon, perpetuating one of the biggest frauds in the history of the country, stole my body and is still using it. Have you ever noticed how we stand the same way, have the same gestures?"

The only thing he patented is the victory sign, and he's using it more and more now that he's taken CBS for half a million dollars for those useless TV interviews."

Although Nixon denies the theft, he told us, "What better way to express my feelings about the situation than to resign from office." And here, we always thought he quit because of Watergate!

TV legend bares all in STAR exclusive interview!

At right, former President Richard Nixon reaches toward Dan Rather, about to hand over more CBS money.

FIRST PIX OF MICHAEL, AFTER OPERATION

Pop star MICHAEL JACKSON told the STAR, "The fire turned out to be a blessing in disguise, my biggest hit ever. I was yelling 'Beat it,' while running down the stage with my hair on fire. I wanted the band to put it out. But instead, they picked up the rhythm and we started singing 'Beat It.' The tapes were rolling, and the next thing I know, the song's on the top of the charts. We eventually doused the fire with Pepsi!"

A bug-eyed MICHAEL JACKSON stares at STAR photogs who sneaked up on him while he was recuperating from minor surgery for burns on his curly hair. Jackson says he's going with the new, "Farrakhan Look."

KOCH CHANGED NAME, STAR LEARNS

NEW YORK--"The Mayor of Hymietown" as Jesse Jackson would call him, changed his name before running for office.

The STAR learned Ed Koch changed his name from Red Kroch, "For the obvious reasons."

Pressed by the STAR, Koch said, "It's true. I've lost my red hair. I'm bald. I told the judge I wanted the 'R' taken out of my first name, and he accidentally took it out of both names. Did he pull a boner!"

LAST YEAR'S WINNER OF THE HORRIBLE PROSE CONTEST:

"Awash with unfocused desire, Everett twisted the lobe of his one remaining ear and felt the presence of somebody else behind him which caused terror to pour through his nervous system like a flash flood pouring down the mid-fork of the Feather River before the completion of the Oroville Dam in 1959."

THIS IS TRUE! THIS YEAR'S WINNER TO BE NAMED MAY 4TH, AND WE'LL HAVE THE RESULTS !!!

We've all heard of sex researchers Masters and Johnson. But did you know the STAR has its own team of sex researchers, Richard Papoukas and Marge King? They've just completed their study of sexuality among health-conscious STAR readers.

BASKETBALL: THE TBA TODAY
WILSON WON'T RETURN TO CHICAGO ARFA
AFTER ALL

by Horace Flambo

Virgil Wilson has revealed that, contrary to earlier reports, he will not be returning to the Chicago area in time for the 1984-85 TBA season. Nonetheless, Wilson will take over the Peshtigo Flame, recently abandoned by Ed Leswig.

(ED NOTE: THE following is to be considered an official communication/ballot by TBA members):

Gentlement of the TBA:

By a vote of 10-0 you accepted Virgil Wilson back into the TBA, and by a vote of 9-1 you decided to assign him the Peshtigo franchise.

By a vote of 6-4 you approved Doug Durheim's proposal for eliminated contract disputes of two or more games for a player who is traded.

On the matter of divisional realignment, the vote was overwhelmingly (36 points to the next closest 12) for the two division alignment. HOWEVER, there were several alternative suggestions, and the news that Virgil Wilson will be playing through the mail for the 1984-85 season, at least, means there still ~~was~~ is some consideration that must be made of this matter. Therefore, please vote on the ~~mm~~ following proposals, assigning 5 points to your favorite, 3 to your second favorite, and one to your third favorite. HOCKEY

by John Stewart

Well, my hockey season is over...A sad note to end on but that is the way it goes.

In the last week of the season both Redskins and Guardians slipped past my Hornets in the North American Hockey League into 2nd and 3rd place respectively. The good news is that this made my #1 pick a little more valuable (Mark Howe went in this spot last year) but the bad news was I had to face my nemesis, the Cougars, who took our season series 6-4-2 winning 5 of the last six times we played.

Anyhow, the Hornets opened on the road in a 5 game series on Cougarhome ice where they went 1-4-1 for the season. In game one, led by Murray Bannerman's 39 saves the Hornets won 4-2 while being outshot 41-26. Then in game 2, goals by Dave Christian and Wayne Gretzky in the last 5 minutes of the game gave the Hornets a 5-4 victory, a 2 game lead in the series, and the prospect of playing the remaining games on home ice ~~mm~~ where the Hornets had only lost 5 games all year including 2 to the Cougars.

The Hornets lead 4-3 in game 3, when the Cougars pulled their goalie and tied the game with just 32 seconds left in the game. The Cougars then won on a power play goal at 7:06 of the overtime period. Dishearted, the Hornets then lost the remaining two games 7-3 and 6-3 allowing 3 power play goals in each game. Disappointing yes, but wait till next year!

There are 16 teams in 4 divisions in the NAHL. The Huskies, with a record of 47-14-7 compiled the best record. The worst was the 10-50-8 mark set by the Dynamo. John's Hornets won the Mazeika Division with a record of 39-17-12.
